

I would like the do not call list to remain in effect. There is no reason why we should have to take these phone calls. And most importantly there is no reason why you should let that happen. SO do the right thing.....